on Soldiers' Field tomorrow. The weather today has been so nearly perfect that thousands who would as a rule stay away from the gridiron because of chilly winds and dampness are making preparations to go out early tomorrow norning. The managers say that nearly 26,000 persons will see the game. Those of Pennsylvania's supporters who are here appear unwilling to give the odds on the Quakers that have prevailed for a week past. They want to bet at even money, but Harvard men hold off. The Quakers have been playing smooth clean, easy football this season and, as Harvard has been putting up a rather rough, aggressive game, the Philadelphians may be a trifle upset by the new experience. Local Wrestling Championship. R. Roy Mackey and Jake Luskey, two well-known local wrestlers, who have been claiming the local championship for the last two years, have signed articles to wrestle for the championship of the District of Columbia. The match is to take place at the Bijou Theater six nights of next week. The man who gets the most falls out of the six will take the purse of $100, which was put up by Manager Grieves, and also the local championship.

Duponts Victorious. The Duponts defeated the third Episcopal High School football team in a wellplayed game yesterday. The score was 11 to 0.

ALGER SUCCEEDED

Secret of How His Alley Was Paved.

PROTESTS DID NOT AVAIL

Story to the Effect That Major W. M. Black, Formerly District Engineer Commissioner, Favored the Secretary of War-Its Bearing on His Candidacy for Reappointment.

The specter of Algerism, which has cast its shadow over so many of the de-partments of the War Department, seems now to have stalked forth even more boldly, and there is strong reason to be lieve that it has even reached the local municipal government. At least so goes the story, which gained publicity from thoroughly trustworthy and reliable sources yesterday afternoon.

It in a measure explains the delay of the Administration in announcing its in-tention of retaining Capt. Lansing H. Beach, of the engineer corps of the army, as engineer Commissioner of the District of Columbia, and makes clear what seems to Secretary Alger very excellent reasons for promoting the reappointment of Major William M. Black to fill the pesi-

The statement is made that Major mack, while he was engineer Commisstoner of the District, just prior to the outbreak of the war, rendered the Sccretary of War a most valuable service in securing for him a vitrated brick pavement for the alley in the rear of his premises at No. 1881 K Street, in square 184. This was not only done, but in spite of vigorous protests on the part of the neighbors of the Secretary of War, hence the assertion that Secretary Ager feets that Major Black's services should not pass unrewarded.

The request for the paving of the alley ran, Black vici kin Shoes, in up-to-late styles. Equal to any $1.00 was made in August, 1897, by Secretary those settle— $2.45 was made to Major Black, then Special Today. $2.45 the District engineer Commissioner, and a captain of the army engineer corps. It was referred to C. B. Hunt, the computing engineer of the District engineer department, who reported that the aley was well and substantially paved with cobble, and that, with a few slight repairs, it might be put in excellent candition without coins to the expense of pairs, it might be put in excellent candition without going to the expense of paving it with vitrified brick, as requested by Secretary Alger.

Though Engineer Hunt reported the pavement in good condition, Secretary Alger, who had srecently purchased a pneumatic-tired carriage, thought that the old pavement was injurious to his tires, and that a new vitrified brick pavement would be much better suited to them.

The most interesting feature of the entire story, in addition to the statement of its bearing upon the candidacy of Major Black, or, at least of Secretary Alger's favor toward the same, is the fact that the cost of the luxury was assessed against the other-property owners on the square. Secretary Alger very naturally square. Secretary Alger very naturally had no objections to the sevying of the assessment, as he did not own but had merely leased the premises occupied by himself.

Several of the neighboring property owners however, learned that the repaye owners, however, learned that in replacement of the alley was contemplated and called upon Capit. Black and the other Commissioners and protested against the work being done, alleging that it was not needed, and that they did not desire to be put to such an unnecessary expense. The other Commissioners, or, at least, one of them, it is asserted, considered that the protest of the property owners was a proper one, and that it should be recognized. Among these who most strenu-ously objected to the improvement, or the "repairing" of the alley, as it was styled in the documents in the case, were Hon. Cincinnati, Nov. 4.—The weather was pleasant, the track fast, the card interesting and the attendance good at Latonia today. Summaries:

First race—One mile. Stockholm, 10 to 1, won; Dominis, second, Leonag, third. Time, 1:45-1-5.

Second race—Five furlongs. Souchon, seen, won; Miss Josephine, second, Primavera, third. Time, 1:22.

and 45 Minutes. Harry Parks, a local boy and a member of the Century Cycling Club, broke the record from New York City to Washington yesterday by riding the distance in twenty-five hours and forty-five minutes. The record has been held by Louis R. Smith, of the Arlingtons, who lowered the record on October 5 five minutes, breaking both the paced and unpaced records.

Mr. Parks started from the steps of the City Hall in New York and rode direct to the steps of the Capitol. He was delayed twenty minutes in crossing the North River, forty-five minutes while having his gear changed in Philadelphia, and thirty-five minutes by being compelled to ride back jinio Philadelphia to secure carbide for his lamp.

Mr. Parks is one of the best road riders in the District of Columbia, and has made many other meritorious rides, one being ton yesterday by riding the distance in

Major Richard Sylvester, assisted by Capt. Austin, inspected the blcycle squad and the mounted policemen of the District at 11 o'clock yesterday morning. The inspection was gratifying in every particular, and the inspecting officers expressed themselves as being greatly pleased at the showing made by the men who patrol the city and its surroundings on horses and wheels. The bicycle policemen, twenty-five in number, in their neat knickerbocker uniforms and with highly polished bicycles were drawn up on Tenth Street, just south of T Street, while their comrades of the equestrian mount, in platoon front, occupied the east side of Vermont Avenue, where Tenth and T Streets intersect it. They were all given their final instructions for the parts they are to take in the police parade on Monday, and were then subjected to a rigid individual inspection. MUSIC AND SMOKE.

Opening of the Corcoran Cadets' Social Season.

The Corcoran Cadet Corps opened its New York to Washington in 25 Hours

The "smoker" marked the beginning of the drill season, and at the same time was a compliment to the corps' basket-

Capt. E. C. Edwards, in his usual agresof ceremonies.

Those who added to the please of the entertainment were: Johnnie Weber, of the Bljou Stock Company; the Burnt Cork Club, Steve Clements, Harry Shackle-ford, R. B. Bond, E. Elsinger, M. M. Clark, West End Mandolin Club, Coon

Mackey and Luskey Matched for
